

Objectives for _____ School Year 2021-2022

To include but not limited to:

English: Improve reading, spelling, grammar and composition skills. Read and respond to a wide variety of literature. Improve communication / public speaking skills.

Science: Expose student to concepts in science. Read and research topics, design and conduct experiments/projects that will test and/or illustrate science concepts, and present learned concepts to others.

Geography: Instruct student in the areas of local, state and world geography, and the use of maps, atlases, and globes.

Social Studies to include:

Civics: Continue to develop the concept of the rights and responsibilities of a citizen to student. Continue to discuss current events.

World History, US History, PA History: Read a variety of historical literature. Continue to place events of history in a logical order. Learn about history through the reading and analysis of primary documents, living history, and student-designed projects.

Mathematics: Improve computation skills. Master new topics and mathematical concepts as introduced.

Art/Music: Provide opportunities for student to use art/music/drama as a form of expression.

Physical Education: Provide opportunities for regular physical activity of all kinds.

Health and Safety Education: Continue to instruct student in areas relating to health and safety on an ongoing basis, including the regular and continuous instruction in the danger and prevention of fires.

